MAILS BY THE UNITED STATES PACKET. - IT will be seen by an advertisement that there is now on view here a fine collection for Japan, San Francisco, the United greatest modern artists. It is corious to note that R.A.'s and A.R.A.'s now devote themselves almost entirely to the art of engraving, the result of which is that an immense improvement has appeared of late cents extra Postage until the time of years in the engravings now obtainable. The collection to which we refer comprises engravings from the pictures of Landseer, and to those who have not been Home several years many new pictures will found in the various groups. Old friend there are, of course, whose appearance can never be unwelcome; but it is seldom many lottored proofs of high-class picture can be obtainable so far away from Home In addition to the larger specimens, there are a few etchings in the collection which were pitted, at the meeting of the Executive Council, against H. E. the Governor and the Officer Commanding the Troops. From this fact, and from the resignation of Dr Stewart as acting Colonial Secretary, people will doubtless draw such conclusions as the past experience of official life seems to justify. We are not certain what the official rule is, but presume that other than gubernatorial narratives of this affair w their way to the Secretary of State. respondent has suggested that an interes ing return to be obtained would be that o the number of squabbles that have arisen in official circles in this Colony since Governor Hennessy assumed his duties, the nature of the disagreeable business that caused the rupture in each case, the number of officials who have resigned certain posts, and, above all, the number of complaints that have gone Home to the Secretary of State. Now this would make quite a formidable document; but still one thing would have to be added, viz., the number of officials who have gone Home and found that their prospects have been considerably improved by the trip. Seriously, however, there is little wonder that the administration of this Government is vacillating, feeble, and unproductive in public works, because of the unusual predominance of the "shillelagh" element and the waste of energy

Kwang Tung, Antenor. THE Cheyenne (Wymong Territory) correspondent of the Alta California says :-The case of the intermarriage of a China man, named Lee Chin, and a white women named Mrs Eve H. Lee, is attracting much attention. The statutes of Wyoming forbid such intermarriage, and the couple had the ceremony performed in Denver, the Colorado laws not prohibiting it. Mr Mrs Lee Chin have been indicted for 2 cegenation. The Chinese Consul at Deir under the direction of the Chinese Amba sador at Washington, has become interested in behalf of his countryman, and will contest the case in the Courts. Judge W. P. Carvell and J. C. Baird have been retained to defend the case. Meanwhile a full ment, and diplomatic correspondence is likely to ensue. Rodanow has escaped punishment after all. We notice in an exchange that "Alexander Rodanow alias Nathan Ganz, editor of the Nihilist magazine, the Anarchist, of Boston, Mass., was arraigned in that city on the 28th March, for using the mail for fraudulent purposes. He had advertised extensively an imaginary watch manufacturing com pany, having headquarters in Paris and Switzerland, but was acquitted in consenuence of defective evidence. Matshed Theatre sixteen or seventeen years Last night there began at the Princess's Theatre an engagement which should possess a certain peculiar interest for old Edinburgh playgoers. Mr Henry Murray, the son of the manager who is undoubtedly the most famous in the annals of the local theatre. made his first appearance on the Edinburgh stage—and also, we believe, his first as actor by profession-in the arduous character of Sir Pertinax MacSycophant, in Macklin's comedy, "The Man of the World." The reason why this play has kept the stage for more than a century, while so many have become obsolete which are far its superiors in plot, construction, and brilliancy of dialogue, is to be found in the fact that, while manners change, human nature does not; and the saturnine old author of "The Man of the World" embodied in Sir Pertinax, and help up to the public scorn, traits and attributes which are not less common now, perhaps, than in the days when George the Third was King, though their manifestations may be different. The portraiture of servility, want of principle, and devotion to worldly success which the character presents is perhaps over-coloured, but it is the very breadth and exuberant force with which it is delimented that are the secrets of its vitality. The part is one round which many theatrical traditions have gathered. It has been essayed, with varying success, by many of the greatest English actors of the last hundred years. That Mr Murray should have selected it for his debut proves at least that he is not wanting in courage; but his performance of it last night shows that his confidence in his own resources was not without justification. He has evidently thought out and studied every detail of the character, and the result is a reading which is always intelligent, often artistic, and has, besides, the attraction of being, for all practical purposes, original. Whether it expresses the author's conception is another it genially. He is not merely, as he should be, earnest in the furtherance of his schemes, and quite ready to descend to any act of meanness or dishonesty in order to promote them; he is also full of unctuous satisfaction with his own career, and it keeps him in good humour with himself and the rest of the world till the moment when his contrivances are marred on the eve of final triumph by the perverse honesty of his son. The tragic element in the character, the almost ferocious earnestness with which Sir Pertinax pursues his contemptible ends, is, in fact, kept out of sight till, under the sting of disappointment, the

The ordinary half-yearly meeting of shareholders was held at the Hotel, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock p.m. There were present Reiners, H. Hoppius, H. Kuhlmann, J. Cox, E. Georg, J. Remedios, G. Raynal, H. Smith, D. MacCulloch, A. E. Vaucher. and F. C. Dittmer.

The Chairman said the shareholders had doubtless studied the report and accounts for the past half year, which had been before them for some time. He could therefore ask the meeting to take the report and accounts as read. The report had touched on all the important points connected with the institution. He had therefore nothing to add. DIAS v. MALABUNA (821.50).—This was one of those money lending cases which seem to be prevalent amongst Portuguese. Plaintiff said she lent money to the defendant on two occasions, in all amounting with interest to $21.50. Defendant admitted the loan which had been given to his wife. but alleged that the money had been repaid with the exception of $3.50. Both parties swore positively in opposite directions. Defendant's wife was also examined and swore that the money had been repaid. A youthful Chinaman, servant to the plaintiff, gave evidence as to taking letters to the defendant asking for payment.

The Judge said he thought the woman must have been very stupid if she had paid the money and got no receipt. If at any time the defendant could show him by any evidence that the money had been paid, his Lordship was prepared to re-open the case.

> XAVIER v. FUCKEERA ($200).—This was claim for $200, which plaintiff alleged he had advanced to defendant as a loan in connection with the promotion of a sweep last year, promoted by the Cosmopolitan Club. Defendant denied that it was a loan, and said it was money paid into a concern where the profit or the risk would be mutual.

Mr Mossop appeared for the plaintiff. He said the action was brought to recover a loan made by the plaintiff to the defend ant. The plaintiff was a Portuguese clerk, until lately employed in the Cosmopolitan for this conception of the part, and it is Club. The action arose out of a dispute about a certain sweep in connection with the races in February last. On the 6th of January, a meeting of the Committee of the inexperience in his manner or delivery; if Cosmopolitan Club was held, at which Mr it be granted that his interpretation is Fuckeers, Mr Moore, Mr Whitehead, and correct, no fault is to be found with the other gentlemen were present. PUBLIC WORKS IN HONGKONG Acompany has been formed for constructing and working tramways from East Point to the Sailors' Home, the cars to be hauled by sterm-power. An inclined railway is iso contemplated from the Peak, to be worked with a stationary engine and wire rope. This if carried out will be a great convenience to the Peak residents, who would get up in about eight minutes, with safety and comfort. All these projects are certain to be carried out, if not during the reign of the present Governor, during that of his successor. Governor Hennessy, to judge from his numerous speeches, would be thought a great promoter of public works, Normanby, then Lord. Mulgrave, and a mised public works, such as new waterhim, there would now have been a large departure of Sir Arthur Kennedy from the colony. Numerous applications were made to sell the ground. His refusal to sell land works. Important works initiated by his predecessor have been either diverted from their intended purpose or stopped altogether; as, for instance, the large new cattle market at Lap Sap Wan, which was erected at great cost some years ago, has never been used up to the present. The new scheme for a different water supply has been shelved, refused for several months. The pet idea of the Governor seems to be to leave a "big balance." It would be a matter of interest to the colonists, and would astonish the Secretary of State, if some one would compile a statement showing the money that has been literally "thrown away," and lost to the colony during the present Governor's reign. - London and China Express.

THE CHINA REVIEW. \.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and tervals of two months, each number conillustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new___ or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two ossays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the lieview. dress China Review, Hongkong. - Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and, Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has heen much regretted in Europe as well as in Chins. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uninese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously oultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Hevico by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Roy. E, J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure form a substantial octave magazine.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community. amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of
